Interim Youth Director

While we review the youth program structure and hire a new Youth Director, Jessica DuBord has graciously offered to temporarily fill in during this time of transition. We give Jessica our sincere thanks for her offer to help our church in this area.

The Staff Parish Committee is considering various structural changes to the youth program. One of those options would be to discontinue the traditional youth Sunday School (due to low participation) and focus our resources/energies on the more active Wednesday evening activities as well as day/evening long events (like trips and lock-ins). If you have specific comments or suggestions, please share them with me or any SPPRC member. We value your input as we work to find the best answers for our church. Please share any input you have with Dave Kubik:
