You are being called by name, for a purpose.

People: God, you have searched us and know us.
You discern our thoughts from far away.

Reader: Do not confuse the siren calls of the world for God’s call.
Do not confuse the values of this world for God’s values.

People: You know, O God, when we sit and when we stand.
You know when we lie down and where we go.

Reader: Your words and your deeds are known to God.
God knew you before you were born.

Your thoughts embrace us amid all you have created.

Human Relations Sunday

Today, the United Methodist Church observes Human Relations Day. The Human Relations Day offering provides funding for ministries that are doing the work of community development, community advocacy and outreach to at-risk youth.

Ministry that is done from a community development approach seeks to empower people to find the gifts and strengths that exist within the community and then use those strengths to lift up local communities.

The work of building communities through community development and community advocacy seeks to move away from applying Band-Aids in the midst of poverty and racism and instead starts with the roots, building a firm foundation for strong and healthy communities.

Like Samuel, the church today must be prepared to listen for God’s voice to move us to speak and act in the world. Our gifts on Human Relations Day allow the church to join in God’s work of justice and liberation.
