Called to Worship

Opening Hymn For All the Saints (vs. 1-4) UMH 711

*Invocation (1 Corinthians 15)

Leader: Sisters and brothers, listen to this mystery!

All: We will not all die, but we will all be changed,

Leader: For ‘Death has been swallowed up in victory.’

All: ‘Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death is your sting?’

All: Thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Opening Prayer (in unison)

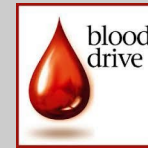

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord. Grant us grace so to follow your holy saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys which you have prepared for those who sincerely love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Tiffany Window Tours

The busy tours of the sanctuary and Tiffany Windows are coming to an end as October winds down. We have had visitors from all over the United States, Canada, and Europe. These tours could not have been successful without the assistance of Cathy Schlickman, the tour guides Mary Armstrong, Cheryl Vahl, Laurinda Brimeyer and Morgan Frazer and many from the church who helped as visitors came in daily to view the Tiffany Windows. We heard many comments like: “they are beautiful,” “I have never seen anything like these,” it is so serene,” “what a beautiful place to worship” and compliment after compliment. It was an honor to host these people and make us aware of the treasures we have in our church. The proceeds from the tours make it possible to repair the windows that are in need of attention to last another 100 years.

Submitted by Betty Phillips, Historian

On November 6, 1833, Barton Randle preached the first sermon on Iowa soil. In honor of this anniversary, there will be a church tour on November 8, 9:30-10:30 a.m., held in the sanctuary led by church historian Betty Phillips and Laurinda Brimeyer. They will be pointing out our numerous "treasures" and telling the stories behind many of them. All interested people are invited to attend!

Pies Pies Pies

St. Luke's United Methodist Women will once again sell pies for your Thanksgiving enjoyment. Called to Remember All Saint's Sunday

(A representative of each family of those being memorialized is invited to come and sit in the front pews. As your loved one's name is read, you are invited to light a memorial candle.)

Reader 1: Ever-living God, this day revives in us memories of loved ones who are present with us no more. What happiness we shared when they walked among us. What joy when, loving and being loved, we lived our lives together.

Congregation: Their memory is a blessing forever.

Reader 2: Months or years may have passed, and still we feel near to them. Our hearts yearn for them. Though the bitter grief has softened, a duller pain abides; for the place where once they stood is empty now. The links of life are broken, but the links of love and longing cannot break.

Congregation: Their souls are bound up in ours forever.

Reader 1: We see them now with the eye of memory, their faults forgiven, their virtues grown larger. So does goodness live, and weakness fade from sight. We remember them with gratitude and bless their names.

Congregation: Their memory is a blessing forever.

Reader 2: And we remember as well the members who but yesterday were part of our congregation and community. To all who cared for us and labored for all people, we pay tribute. May we prove worthy of carrying on the tradition of our faith, for now the task is ours.

Congregation: Their souls are bound up in ours forever.

Reader 1:

Gracious and victorious God, we give you thanks that they now live and reign with you. Hear now, as we read the names of those for whom we give thanks this day.

We name before you these who were connected to St. Luke's United Methodist Church of whose funeral service or memorial service was conducted by our clergy, and, who during the past twelve months, have departed from this life to join the Church Triumphant:

(As each name is read, a representative of that family will step to the worship center and light a memorial candle.)

*Ralph Tayloe
Elaine Tippe
Ray Kienzle
James McIntyre
Eva Quakenbush
David Carlock*

*Rachael Beasley
Jeanne Weeber
John W. Fischer
Harriet Mahan
Ruby Sutton
Florence Helsper*

Reader 2: For the memory of these, O God, we give you thanks.

Congregation: Their memory is a blessing forever.

Reader 1: Most merciful God, we pause in silence to remember others from our families, from our communities, and from our networks of friends, who, during the past twelve months, have departed from this life to join the Church Triumphant.

(A candle is lit during a moment of silence.) For the memory of these, O God, we give you thanks.

Congregation: Their memory is a blessing forever.
