* Call to Worship Isaiah 2: 2-5

* 8:30 In days to come the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills;

All the nations shall stream to it. Many peoples shall come and say,

'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob;

That he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths.'

For out of Zion shall go forth instruction,

And the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

He shall judge between the nations,

And shall arbitrate for many peoples;

They shall beat their swords into ploughshares,

And their spears into pruning-hooks;

Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,

Neither shall they learn war any more.

Multiply Joy: Contentment is Key

Do you have a tough time separating what you want from what you need? Do you sometimes think, “, “If only I had that thing I would be truly happy!”? Do you have to devote storage space to “stuff” that you seldom use? When is enough enough? Always wanting more is a burden in itself. It leads to a constant sense of discontent. It whispers the lie that things are more important than people. It weighs us down, making it harder to make changes and life decisions. Jesus said:

“Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Parent feeds them. Are you not of more value than they?” (Matthew 6:26)

The joy and satisfaction of helping change lives through supporting St. Luke’s ministries is one strong reason why we give to the Church. Over the next several weeks we will be exploring why and how we can make personal commitments of giving for the coming year. We will consecrate these commitments on Sunday, November 25.
