* Called to Worship

* Call to Worship

God is our refuge and strength, a tested help in time of trouble. And so we need not fear even if the world blows up, and the mountains crumble into the sea. Let the oceans roar and foam; let the mountains tremble Be still and know God. — Psalm 46

* Hymn "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" UMH 110

* Response

Oh, be thankful, the goodness of the Lord is great.
The loving kindness of the Lord remains forever.

Let the congregation of Israel praise the Lord with these same words.
The loving kindness of the Lord remains forever.

In my distress, I prayed to the Lord and I was rescued.
The loving kindness of the Lord remains forever.

Jehovah God is our light. I present my sacrifice upon the altar for you are God and I shall give you this thanks and this praise!
The loving kindness of the Lord remains forever.

8:30 * Psalm 118 UMH 839-840
with sung response on screen

10:45 * Psalm "This Is the Day" by Anne Krentz Organ

Children’s Time	Matthew 21: 28-30	Rachel Potter
“Jesus Loves Me” (chorus only)		UMH 191

Called to Reflection

The vineyard has been planted and the work has begun. Long have we been called to be stewards of the vineyard.

“A man planted a vineyard and built a wall around it and dug a pit for pressing out the juice of the grapes, and built a watch tower. Then he leased the vineyard to tenant farmers and moved to another country. At the time of the harvest he sent one of his men to collect his share of the crop. But the farmers beat up the man and sent him back empty-handed.” — Mark 12: 1-3

The vineyard has been planted and the work has begun. Long have we watched and waited.

“The man sent another, but the same thing happened. He was beaten and sent away. A third man was sent and the same thing happened. He, too, was wounded and chased away.”
— Luke 20:11-12

The vineyard has been planted and the work has begun. How long must we wait?

“Finally the man sent his son, thinking that surely the sharecroppers would respect him. But when the farmers saw the son coming, they said to themselves, “Here come the heir to this estate. Let us kill him and get it for ourselves.” So they dragged him out of the vineyard and killed him. When the owner returns, what do you think he will do to those farmers?”
— Matthew 21:37- 40

“But they would never do such a thing like that.” The listeners said.

“Jesus looked at them and said, “Then what does the scripture mean where it says, ‘The Stone rejected by the builders was made the Cornerstone? Whoever stumbles over the Stone shall be broken; and those on whom it falls will be crushed.’”
— Luke 20: 16-18

But God raised the Chosen back to life. It is by his authority that we stand healed! For Jesus is the Messiah, the one referred to in the scriptures when they speak,” a stone rejected by the builders which became the capstone of the arch.” There is salvation in no one else! Under all heaven there is no other name for people to call upon to save them.”

— Acts 4: 10 – 12

*	Hymn	“Rock of Ages” ( verses 1 &amp; 2 )	UMH 361

Called to Share

Sharing our Gifts, our Tithes, our Lives

And now you have become living building-stones for God’s use in building his house. What’s more, you are holy priests; so come to God and offer those things that are pleasing in the sight of the Lord. As the scriptures express it, “See, I am sending Christ to be the carefully chosen, precious Cornerstone of my church, and I will never disappoint those who trust in the Christ.”
— I Peter 2:5 - 6

8:30	Offertory	Rock of Ages Medley” Sylvia Ward, piano	by Sankey & Hastings arr. Don Phillips
10:45	Offertory	“Precious Cornerstone”	by Andy Park
*	Doxology	“Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow”	UMH 94
*	Prayer of Dedication

\ Sent to Serve*

Christ is very precious to we who believe. The same stone that was rejected by the builders has become the Cornerstone, the most honored and important part of the building.

The scripture says, “He is the Stone that some will stumble over, and the Rock that will make them fall. They will stumble because they will not listen to God’s word, nor obey it, and so this punishment must follow – that they will fall.

“But you are not like that for you have been chosen by God. You are priests of the Most High. You are holy and pure, God’s very own. All this so you may show to others how God called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. Once you were nothing; now you are God’s own. Once you knew very little of God’s kindness; now your very lives have been changed by it.”

— I Peter 2:7 - 10

Oh, be thankful, the goodness of the Lord is great.
The loving kindness of the Lord remains forever.

Carrying the Light of Christ to the World

Thanksgiving Ingathering

Donate by: October 28th

The United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) is the not-for-profit global humanitarian aid organization of the United Methodist Church. The Iowa Ingathering helps provide the approximately $4 million in supplies. UMCOR kits help care for the most vulnerable people during times of crisis. They help sustain everyday life by providing basic necessities to people who lack access to essential supplies.

St. Luke's will be taking a financial gift to the Ingathering. Please use the slips included in your bulletin to make a donation in the offering plate or at the church office.

Multiply Joy!

Friends, we are fully into our Fall cycle of ministries here at St. Luke's. Among the exciting new additions, we have hired Rachel Potter as our full-time Children and Youth Director! Along with her support team she is bringing new vision and energy to our Sunday School, the youth group called Impact! and Wonderful Wednesday programming!

Also, a new Sunday School class for young adults (currently going through Max Lucado's Life Lessons from Mark) is meeting in the Wesley room. In coming weeks, I'll be telling about more of our life-changing ministries.

The joy and satisfaction of helping change lives through supporting St. Luke's ministries is one strong reason why we give to the Church. Over the next several weeks we will be exploring why and how we can make personal commitments of giving for the coming year. We will consecrate these commitments on Sunday, November 25.
