Chuck's Chat — February 22, 2017

Wednesday, March 1st is Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent.

I'm reminded of the lyrics to part of Leonard Bernstein's Mass:

When the thunder rumbles now the age of gold is dead.
And the dreams we've clung to, dying to stay young have left us parched and old instead.
When my courage crumbles,
When I feel confused and frail.
When my spirit falters, on decaying alters.
And my illusions fail.
I go on right then.
I go on again.
I go on to say I will celebrate another day.
I go on.

If tomorrow tumbles, and everything I love is gone,
I will face regret, All my days and yet I will still go on.
Lauda Lauda Lauda. Lauda Lauda- de- da- de- dae.
(Praise, Praise, etc.)

Ash Wednesday is all about the parched, crumbling, faltering illusions with which we try to prop up our lives. But it is also about cleansing, clearing away, fertilizing, and hopeful waiting. If you're like me, you've experienced highs and lows, stress, worries, disappointments, hopes and fears in the last year. Some plans that we so hoped would be fulfilled have fallen through, while some of our actions really don't stand up to the standards God has for us as Christians.

Ash Wednesday, to my mind, is a much stronger version of New Year's Day. It's a time to take stock of the past, repent of our sins, become free from what is holding us back, and begin a new journey of faithfulness heading towards Easter.

*Shalom,
Chuck*

Our Caring Community

Lord, as we continue life's journey, we pray for all who are challenged by health concerns and ongoing illness.

We know that the awesome God we worship hears the prayers of our lips as well as the prayers of our hearts. We pray for the people who are currently dealing with a recent illness, surgery, injury, or medical concern: Lauren and her family (friend of Sharon Kress), Bonnie Jorgensen, Evelyn Cooper (Coni Stephenson's aunt), Ron Liskey's Father-in-Law, Edie Bruehahn, Dave McDonough, and Dave Bryant.

Prayers for people in Care Centers:

Marian Thomas	Carol Pins
Jon Hardenbergh	Edie Bruehahn
Sally Wiegand	Mary Dempsey
Barb Boettcher	Margerie Kreassig
Romayne Schmitt

Prayers for people with ongoing health issues:

Peggy Lemke	Anna Jane Redding
Johnny	Mary K. Benefiel
Brett Cooper	Kaye Running
Bonnie Jorgensen	Marjorie Tayloe
Jeanne Patterson

Prayers of consolation for recently lost loved ones to the families of:

Martha Laaker
Gary Fousek (Sandra Fousek's brother)

Our prayers also turn to prayers for Peace and Justice around the world. We especially remember all those who currently serve in the armed forces of our country. Lord, we ask your special touch of compassion for all the victims of civil discord and war, the families of soldiers, and the families of police officers. It is in the name of your Son and our Savior that we offer our prayers. Amen.

Please check the prayer request lists if there are any outdated prayer requests. Send updates or prayer requests to:

Interim Youth Director

While we review the youth program structure and hire a new Youth Director, Jessica DuBord has graciously offered to temporarily fill in during this time of transition. We give Jessica our sincere thanks for her offer to help our church in this area.

The Staff Parish Committee is considering various structural changes to the youth program. One of those options would be to discontinue the traditional youth Sunday School (due to low participation) and focus our resources/energies on the more active Wednesday evening activities as well as day/evening long events (like trips and lock-ins). If you have specific comments or suggestions, please share them with me or any SPPRC member. We value your input as we work to find the best answers for our church. Please share any input you have with Dave Kubik:
