Chuck's Chat - February 7, 2018

Morning Coffee – check

A bite of breakfast – check

Shave, brush teeth, shower – check, check, check

Shirt, pants, shoes – check

Armor – che....wait! What? Armor?

Armor (armour, if you like) is just as much a part of my morning's preparations as all the others. If you've seen me, you know that I don't go clanking around like Sir Galahad in steel plate. No, the armor that I put on every morning is "the Full Armor of God." Paul outlines it in Ephesians 6:10-18:

¹⁰ Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his power. ¹¹ Put on the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. ¹² For our struggle is not against enemies of blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. ¹³ Therefore take up the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to withstand on that evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm. ¹⁴ Stand therefore, and fasten the belt of truth around your waist, and put on the breastplate of righteousness. ¹⁵ As shoes for your feet put on whatever will make you ready to proclaim the gospel of peace. ¹⁶ With all of these, take the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the flaming arrows of the evil one. ¹⁷ Take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. ¹⁸ Pray in the Spirit at all times in every prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert and always persevere in supplication for all the saints.

What sorts of intangible enemies come after you? What lies insinuate themselves into your thinking that the belt of truth could help you combat? Lies like, "I'm not worthy of love" or "I always make mistakes" or "I'm not smart/strong/educated/good-looking enough." Sometimes those lies come to us from people whom we should be able to trust. Sometimes children hear horrible lies from the parents who themselves are broken, and who pass that brokenness on to their children.

What keeps you from proclaiming (talking about) "the gospel of peace"? Does it sometimes feel like you are walking through sticky mud when you try to share the good news with someone? These spiritual shoes can help with that predicament.

Our Caring Community

Lord, as we continue life's journey, we pray for all who are challenged by health concerns and ongoing illness.

We know that the awesome God we worship hears the prayers of our lips as well as the prayers of our hearts. We pray for the people who are currently dealing with a recent illness, surgery, injury, or medical concern:

Jim McCarthy (Coni S.'s brother) - testing for MS
Jack Dobbert (Coni S.'s uncle) - stage 4 cancer
Barbara Egbert (Dick Rollefson's sister) - hospice

Prayers for people in Care Centers:

Betty Farcas	Edie Bruehahn
Sally Wiegand	Mary Dempsey
Barb Boettcher	Margerie Kreassig

Prayers for people with ongoing health issues:

Cheri Loveless	True Mills
Ron Liskey	Susan Funke
Peggy Lemke	Johnny
Brett Cooper	Bonnie Jorgensen
Jeanne Patterson

Prayers of consolation for recently lost loved ones to the families and friends of:

Cheryl I. Murguia (long time St. Luke's member)
Patrick Lansing (Loveless' son-in-law's father)
Todd Halverson (Brimeyers' brother-in-law's son)

Our prayers also turn to prayers for Peace and Justice around the world. We especially remember all those who currently serve in our country's armed forces. Lord, we ask your special touch of compassion for all the victims of civil discord and war, the families of soldiers, and the families of police officers. It is in the name of your Son and our Savior that we offer our prayers. Amen.

Please check the prayer request lists if there are any outdated prayer requests. Send updates or prayer requests to:

Emergency Medical Information Cards

In the event of a personal emergency taking place at church, we recommend you have information at St. Luke's that is readily available for EMTs when they are called. You can fill out a 5x7 card stored in the church office and copies can be given to EMTs if the occasion arises. Stop by the church office to fill one out.

Margie Breese, Care and Compassion

We request that if you become hospitalized, please let the church office know. Also, please designate St. Luke's as your church when filling out hospital admittance information. If you would like a prayer request, please let us know.

VISION & MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the United Methodist Church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The MISSION of St. Luke's United Methodist Church is to feed souls, grow faith in God and make a difference in the lives of our congregation, our neighbors and our world.

The VISION of St. Luke's United Methodist Church is: Welcoming ALL... Caring... Serving... Growing

Red Basket Project

Red Basket Project: This project was created to provide women and young girls with access to free feminine hygiene products at sites throughout the city, including schools. St. Luke's is one of the sites. There is no designated funding for this project at St. Luke's so it is dependent on donations. Please consider donating funds or products including thin, medium and heavy pads and tampons in regular or super sizes. These products are packaged into packets and provided in the women's restroom in the lower level of the church outside the fellowship hall. At least 10 packs are taken per week. Thank you for your past donations and we ask you to continue to donate. Lack of these products impacts school and work attendance for women.

And those flaming darts of the evil one – you know, the little zingers and jabs that seemingly come out of nowhere and hurt like the devil when they land. Snide comments from co-workers, or juicy gossip that happens to be about you. They come flying in like flaming darts, and your shield of faith can deflect them and put out their fire.

And, it's sure a good thing to have the helmet of salvation! Few blows can kill as quickly as the blow of being a slave to sin and death. There's a reason Paul speaks of this piece of armor as covering the head. The head is very vulnerable to death-dealing blows, and by shielding it under our salvation through faith in Jesus Christ, the evil one has no way to kill us outright.

Then there is the Sword of the Spirit, which is the word of the Lord. This may sound like an offensive weapon, and in truth, some folks like to wield the Bible like a sword. But much more of a sword's work is in deflecting cutting blows from other swords. A good, healthy knowledge and understanding of the Bible is a great way to parry the thrusts and cuts that try to hurt us, throw us off balance, and make us quit.

And Paul ends with "Pray in the Spirit at all times..." This can be like keeping the straps adjusted on the armor. It also keeps us connected with the One who provides us with the armor in the first place. Living as a Christian isn't all gentleness and giggles. There are often times when we must persevere against forces that would have us buckle, give up our faith in Jesus, and quit the field.

Shalom, Chuck

Fabulous Fridays Artist Series 2018

Fabulous Fridays return to St. Luke's United Methodist Church on January 12, 2018. Now in its 27th season, this popular series began in 1992 with musicians from St. Luke's and grew to include locally and nationally recognized artists. More than 200 artists have performed for these informal downtown concerts during the series' history.

Performances begin at 12:05 p.m. and are 30 minutes in length. Many in the audience bring their lunch and enjoy time together after the concert in the Fellowship Hall, where coffee and desserts are available. The concert, coffee and desserts are free, but baskets are available for contributions, the proceeds of which go to People In Need (P.I.N.) and St. Luke's "Jesus Fund" for food assistance. Metered street parking is available. Accessible entry is in back of church. Our winter weather policy is that if the artist can get there, the show is on.
