Habitat for Humanity Update

A house was built at 2902 Elm Street during a "5 day building blitz" June 6-10, sponsored by Dubuque Builders Association and Habitat for Humanity of Dubuque & Jackson counties in partnership with the Laura Morris Family. On Friday, June 17 at 4pm, a community

Dedication and Blessing of the home was held.

A Habitat for Humanity FAITH has made preparations at 767 University to excavate and pour cement. Completion planned for fall.

- 1) Volunteers needed Saturdays until finished;
- 2) Meals for workers also needed;
- 3) Donations to fund this or future builds accepted.

Questions/scheduling, contact:

St. Luke's Garden Ministry News

Edible Garden News: Edible landscaping will be planted around the old parsonage next door to the church in addition to the container garden and two blueberry bushes provided with a Sustainable Dubuque grant. Edible landscapes increase local food production, decreasing fossil fuel use.

Edible landscapes are planned for St. Luke's parking lot, as a model for farmer's market goers. To volunteer, text or email Jennifer Crow at 563-564-2176 or jjcrow24@aol.com

Purdy Produce Plot St. Luke's Church Garden:

65 lbs. of lettuce were served or given away this last month at Food for the Soul. Sonya DeMulder donated a month's worth of kale.

Terry Stewart, Terrie Berry, Marcia Dubbels, Helen Johnston, and Kathy Michel helped prep fresh produce from the church gardens.

Beans were served July 9th, thanks to Aaron Burbach's weeding, Jennifer Crow's picking, and Marcia and Terrie's cleaning. Beets, zucchini, and radishes made for a great veggie tray.

The Burbach family helped plant and weed in the garden, and more help is always needed!

Food for the Soul: Grants at Work

A recent national survey for fruit and vegetable consumption rated Iowans 50th, dead last. Guidelines suggest 2-4 cups of each per day, depending on body size and activity. 60-80% of fruits and vegetables in Iowa come from California at high costs, prohibiting access and proper nutrition.

We have received several grants and donations to address hunger and malnutrition in our community. The Matthew 25 grant pays for healthy snacks, a monthly food giveaway, and peanut butter sandwiches at meals. A $700 donation from the Elks Lodge allows us to get produce from St. Stephen's Food Bank. The Dubuque Rotary Grant funds the Purdy Produce Plot St. Luke's Church Garden, and offers reimbursement for up to $60 of produce at Food for the Soul.

Our meals are packed with fresh produce, sometimes the only source of fruits and vegetables for our guests. Through the Food Bank, 120 lbs. of produce costs just $21, and 38 lbs. of cherries for just $10. The Elks Lodge through St. Stephen's Food Bank makes this possible.

See the Garden News (left) for vegetables provided by the church garden for our meals. Our guests love these foods and swoop them up. Don't allow the myth of "poor people only eat junk food." It's simply not true. Dispel this myth by sharing the experiences we have at Food for the Soul. If you have a garden with extra produce, please donate; or contact Mary (left) to volunteer.
