Preparing Our Hearts for Worship

Prelude Peter Szeibel, organ
Lighting of the Candles: Bringing the Light of Christ Into Our Worship
Welcome/Announcements/Greetings/Introductions

 Called to Worship

* Call to Worship (read responsively) from Psalm 86
Teach me your way, O Lord, that I may walk in your truth;
give me an undivided heart to revere your name.
I give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and I will glorify your name forever.
For great is your steadfast love toward me;
you have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.
O God, the insolent rise up against me;
a band of ruffians seeks my life, and they do not set you before them.
But you, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness.

* Opening Hymn “How Lovely, Lord, How Lovely” TFWS 2042
Sing the first verse, then:
We come to your house — to our Family Home — from lives that seem so full, or empty.
Feed our hunger today, our loving God. Silent prayer
Sing the second verse, then:
Become more precious to us than money, more meaningful than a title. Here we are.
Silent prayer.
Sing the third verse, then:
Pour out upon us grace upon grace, that we may go from strength to strength! Amen.

"The earth we inherit...

...is in danger; the skies and the seas, the forests and the rivers, the soil and the air, are in peril. And with them humankind itself is threatened. As earth's fullness has been our blessing, so its pollution now becomes our curse. As the wonder of nature's integrity has been our delight, so the horror of nature's disintegration now becomes our sorrow." — Rabbi Alexander Schindler, President, Union of American Hebrew Congregations
