Day by day we move at the speed of life. Summer rings with the shouts of children playing. Parents shuttle from work to ball game to supper to bed. Grandparents travel to be with family, or wait for them to come home. And all of us watch and wait, wondering how the day's news will play out. Wars, storms, acts of terror, dips in the economy, visits to the doctor all can cast a damp blanket of anxiety over us.

How good it is then, to come into your presence, God of our salvation! Here, we remember who we are. Here we remember that time is in your hands. Here we rejoice in your strength and wisdom. Thank you, God.

Pastor Steve and Kathy Lamb

St. Luke's celebrates with Pastor Steve and Kathy Lamb as they begin his new appointment and move to near Ollie, Iowa at Prairie View United Methodist Church. Steve and Kathy had founded and lead St. Luke's Saturday Night Praise service for over 20 years with his last service on June 16.

They also were leaders of Word on the Third Praise Team for countless years prior to his appointment to Dubuque Center Grove United Methodist Church. Kathy continues as lay speaker and as a Certified Lay Minister in the Iowa Annual Conference as was Steve prior to his completion of Licensed Pastor Studies. Kathy has been coordinating the St. Luke's Jesus Fund Voucher Program to the present. Both have been involved in the JuBELLation Ringers and other music ministries and teaching DISCIPLE classes.

St. Luke's would like to present an Appreciation Love Gift to the Lamb's for over 20 years volunteering and serving as leaders of the Saturday Night Praise Service at St. Luke's and being in community with the Saturday evening congregation. Donations are being accepted and will be presented to the Lambs at the July 1 worship service. Checks to St. Luke's should indicate Lambs on the memo line.
