Called to Worship

* Call to Worship

Clean out the old yeast so that you may be a new batch, as you really are unleavened. For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed.

What does this mean?

It means: "Let God make you fresh and new, ready to experience life in God's community without the old brokenness and uncleanness weighing you down."

Therefore, let us celebrate the festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. (from 1 Corinthians 5:7-8)

Prayers for the General Conference

Sunday February 17, 2019 - 3:00-5:00 p.m.
Living Water, 1155 Grand Ave., Marion, IA

Iowa East Central District Superintendent Kiboko Kiboko invites us to a time of prayer and sharing communion as we pray for the Special General Conference in St. Louis Feb 23-26:

“As we are getting closer to this General Conference, I have noticed the anxiety level in many churches is going up. How long has it been since we prayed? What would it mean to you to join others just for reflecting on the mission of the church and being in prayer with each other?”

Philippians 4: 6-7 (The Message): “Don’t fret or worry. Instead of worrying, pray. Let petitions and praises shape your worries into prayers, letting God know your concerns. Before you know it, a sense of God’s wholeness, everything coming together for good, will come and settle you down. It’s wonderful what happens when Christ displaces worry at the center of your life.”
