Invitation

Through our sin we stand outside the circle of God's love. Let us remove the barrier as we confess our sins and brokenness:

Confession

We confess that the circle of love is repeatedly broken because of our sin of exclusion.
We create separate circles: the inner circle and the outer circle,
the circle of power and the circle of despair,
the circle of privilege and the circle of deprivation.
Forgive us our sins, as we forgive all who have sinned against us.

We confess that the circle of love is broken whenever there is alienation, whenever there is misunderstanding,
whenever there is insensitivity or a hardening of the heart.
Forgive us our sins, as we forgive all who have sinned against us.

We confess that the circle of love is broken whenever we cannot see eye to eye, whenever we cannot link hand to hand,
whenever we cannot live heart to heart and affirm our differences.
Forgive us our sins, as we forgive all who have sinned against us.

All pray in silence

Through God's grace we are forgiven, by the mercy of our Creator, through the love of the Christ, and in the power of the Spirit. Let us rejoice and be glad!
Glory to God! Amen.

Prayer of Dedication

Called to Thanksgiving

Taking the Bread and Cup

The Great Thanksgiving

Musical Setting: TFWS 2257 (a, b, c, d)

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor gives thanks appropriate to the occasion, remembering God’s acts of salvation, and concludes:

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The pastor continues the thanksgiving. The institution of the Lord’s Supper is recalled. The pastor concludes:

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ,
we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving
as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ’s offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

*The pastor invokes the present work of the Holy Spirit and then praises the Trinity, concluding:
...All honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and for ever.*

Amen.

Prescott Partnership

Volunteer Opportunities! There are often many volunteer opportunities with Prescott. See the other opportunities listed on this page of the bulletin, including help escorting students during the dental sealant clinic and help with the book fair.

Mentors Needed: Those who have transcended the effects of poverty often identify caring adults as the most influential factor in their ability to succeed. You have an opportunity to be a caring adult. Apply to be a mentor at Prescott. Pick up an application packet located in the South Hall, complete, and return to the church office.

Donate School Supplies to the blue bin in the South Hall: facial tissues, glue sticks, Ticonderoga pencils, markers, colored pencils and crayons, and dry erase markers.

Thank You St. Luke's Volunteers: Thank you to Kathy Michel, Laura Carstens, Mary Armstrong, Sharon Kress, Keith Cook and Terry Stewart for helping serve a catered meal to Prescott students and their families on Wednesday January 16th. Terry Stewart stayed after the meal to assist with activities for the children while their parents participated in discussion about Prescott. Every effort is made to engage parents as active participants in their children's school. We can support and facilitate that effort by volunteering to help at events planned for that purpose. Serving food and providing activities for the children make coming more enticing for families. It is often no easy task to get children ready to leave home again in the evening.

Mary Purdy, Prescott Partnership Liaison

Prescott Volunteer Opportunity

The task of the volunteer will be to accompany two children at a time from their classroom to the room where the sealants are being done. Contact Mary Purdy:

mary_purdy@hotmail.com or call 590-5313

Wednesday, February 13 - 4-6pm, 6-8pm
