108TH GOOD FRIDAY COMMUNITY SERVICE

DID E'ER SUCH LOVE

AND SORROW MEET
OR THORNS COMPOSE
SO RICH A CROWN?

Ecumenical Observance of Good Friday

St. Luke's United Methodist Church

April 19th, 2019 — 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Welcome

We at St. Luke's United Methodist Church welcome you to this Good Friday service. May this service be a blessing to you in your Lenten journey, and may this time of worshipping together strengthen the spirit of ecumenism in our community.

During the organ interludes people are asked to move forward, so there is room for those who will arrive later. These interludes also provide an opportunity for people to leave if they are unable to stay for the entire service. Please be sure that all cell phones and pagers are turned off during your stay.

Even as we remember today the supreme sacrifice of love that Christ made, so we give gifts to continue the spirit of compassion. Your offering will be given to PIN (People in Need), a ministry of caring and compassion here in Dubuque. Offering plates are found at the exit.

We wish to thank all the preachers, liturgists, and musicians for the gracious spirit with which they share their God-given abilities. These people represent a variety of churches and denominations, and their participation fosters our understanding of Christian unity. Thank you!

THE PROCESSION OF THE CROSS

(12:00 p.m.)

Sue Hattel, Reader; Rev. Charles Layton, Cross Bearer;

Margie Breese, Morgan Frazer, Altar Stewards

The Reproaches, with Silence and Response

Following the reading of each “reproach” there will be a moment for silent reflection. Then, when the organ sounds the tone, the following hymn will be played one time through. Then we will sing the hymn:

Hymn “Jesus Remember Me” UMH 488

Response: from UMB

Leader: Christ himself bore our sins in his body on the tree.

People: That we might die to sin and live to righteousness.

Leader: Let us pray:

All: Almighty God, your Son Jesus Christ was lifted high upon the cross so that he might draw the whole world to himself. Grant that we, who glory in his death for our salvation, may also glory in his call to take up our cross and follow him; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Duet Sonata VII, Op. 3, No. 7 for two violins by A. Corelli
Ann Duchow and Amanda Eby, violins; Dr. Charles Barland, piano

THE SECOND WORD

(12:35 p.m.)

“Today you will be with me in Paradise.” — Luke 23: 43

Lesson Luke 23: 39-43 Char Eversoll
Holy Trinity Lutheran Church

Solo “Jesus, Remember Me” by Jacques Berthier
Kimberly Becker-Yoko, voice & piano
Connor Feyen, oboe

Prayer (in unison): from LBG

God of peace and glory, who sent Jesus to teach and inspire the multitudes and call us all to discipleship, help us to celebrate the triumph of humility and the satisfaction of servanthood. We rejoice that Christ shared our humanity and lifted the self-esteem of the lowly. May all the world receive Christ’s spirit and give thanks for your steadfast love. Amen.

Reflection Rev. Dr. Paul Attah-Nsiah

Solo

“How Deep the Father’s Love for Us” by Stuart Townend
Alec Amosson, voice
Dr. Charles Barland, piano

Prayer (in unison)

from JGK

O Christ, our Christ, why have we forsaken you? Why are we so far from you, so deaf to the sounds of your groaning? You appeal to us, but are not saved; you trust us, but are not requited. We despise and reject you; we hide our eyes from the sight of you. We mock and scoff at you; we wag our heads, taunting, “You trust the Lord; let the Lord deliver you!” We pronounce sentence upon you, yet you remain silent. We tempt you to save yourself, but you resist temptation. We shout that we desire no ruler but Caesar, and you are nailed to a cross that proclaims you king. O Lord, our Lord, do not forsake us, even though we have forsaken you and gone astray! Amen.

A TIME OF MEDITATION

Silence

Prayer (in unison)

from RD

Jesus, crucified and living Savior, we are huddled together in doubt and fear like the disciples of long ago. We do not want to be separated; we do not want to be forsaken; we do not want to say “good-byes”; we do not want to follow you with a cross.

But even as we know you bid us follow you into brokenness and death, we also know that you have gone before – you have faced danger and conquered doubt.

As we remember the Good Friday events of long ago, we are brought closer to each other and feel your presence with us. We know that we can go with you, because your promise abides with us. Amen.

Meditation

“Were You There”
Rev. Robert Armstrong, voice

by William Smith

The Lord’s Prayer (in unison)

The Ecumenical Text

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

Solo

“When I Survey the Wondrous Cross” arr. David Maddux
Otto Krueger, trumpet

* Tolling of the Tower Chime 33 times, for the 33 years of Jesus’ earthly life

Departure, in reverence
