Called to Communion

Invitation

As when a family gathers for Thanksgiving dinner, and sometimes the table must be made bigger so we ask God to expand our table today. May All find welcome in this dining room of grace! As when a family gathers, sometimes old hurts or fresh wounds steal the joy of brothers and sisters, so today we come bearing our own slights, sins, anger, disappointments and shame. The table is here. The host Jesus is here. It only wants us to prepare by acknowledging what divides us from each other and God, setting those things aside, and being reconciled with God and one another. Let us pray together:

Confession

We are glad to be back with you again, loving parent! And we are glad to be here with our sisters and brothers! We smell the bread and see the table set for us. But we aren't quite ready to eat. First, let us be honest with you and each other. We aren't perfect. Our plans for our lives have a few problems. We have been too quick to judge others. We have been too slow to recognize our own faults and sins. We expect others to live up to standards that we reject for ourselves. And in some cases, we are just angry with other people.

As we look around this room, if we see anyone against whom we are holding anything, we ask forgiveness, and we give forgiveness. We want to enjoy this meal whole-heartedly, without any bitterness, envy, anger, jealousy, shame or fear.

All pray in silence

Through God's grace we are forgiven, by the mercy of our Creator, through the love of the Christ, and in the power of the Spirit. Let us rejoice and be glad!
Glory to God! Amen.

Taking the Bread and Cup

The Great Thanksgiving Musical Setting: TFWS 2257 (a, b, c, d)

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor gives thanks appropriate to the occasion, remembering God's acts of salvation, and concludes:

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The pastor continues the thanksgiving. The institution of the Lord's Supper is recalled. The pastor concludes:

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ,
we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving
as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

*The pastor invokes the present work of the Holy Spirit and then praises the Trinity, concluding:
...All honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and for ever.*

Amen.
