Message "That You May Come to Believe" Pastor Chuck

Called to Communion

Invitation

Jesus our savior invites us to eat and drink a meal that is life itself. He asks us to open ourselves to his love. That involves removing barriers between us and him, and between ourselves. Let us pray together:

Confession

We confess that often we become so concerned with our own comfort that we neglect the great needs of our neighbors. A little inconvenience makes us fume and sputter while the light of life goes out for another person. Perhaps that nearsightedness means we have not remembered your love and care for us.

We confess that we have all we need and much of what we want.
We confess that we are quick to complain and slow to give thanks.
We confess that we forget that your life is within us, that we are your children.
Holy Spirit, prepare us to receive this bread body and wine blood with faith.

All pray in silence

Through God's grace we are forgiven, by the mercy of our Creator, through the love of the Christ, and in the power of the Spirit.
Let us rejoice and be glad!

Glory to God! Amen.

Called to Share

Sharing our Gifts, our Tithes, our Lives

8:30 Offertory “Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us” by William B. Bradbury

Dr. Charles Barland, organ

* Doxology “Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow” UMH 94

Prayer of Dedication

Called to Thanksgiving

Taking the Bread and Cup

The Great Thanksgiving Musical Setting: TFWS 2257 (a, b, c, d)

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor gives thanks appropriate to the occasion, remembering God’s acts of salvation, and concludes:

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The pastor continues the thanksgiving. The institution of the Lord’s Supper is recalled. The pastor concludes:

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ,

we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving

as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ’s offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

*The pastor invokes the present work of the Holy Spirit and then praises the Trinity, concluding:
...All honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and for ever.*

Amen.

Earth Reflection

"Love all of God's creations, the whole of it, and every grain of sand. Love every leaf, every ray of God's light! Love the animals. Love the plants; love everything. If you love everything, you will soon perceive the divine mystery in things. Once you perceive it, you will begin to comprehend it better every day. And you will come at last to love the whole world with an all-embracing love." — Quote from Fyodor Dostoevsky, 1821-1881, Russian novelist, journalist, philosopher
