Invitation

Christ our Lord invites all people to his table, and with that invitation calls us to turn away from our sin and seek to live in peace with God and with one another. Knowing that we are welcomed and loved, we confess our human frailty together as we pray.

Confession

All-merciful, tender God, you have given birth to our world, conceiving and bearing all that lives and breathes. We come to you as your daughters and sons, aware of our aggression and anger, our drive to dominate and manipulate others. We ask you to forgive us, and by the gentle touch of your Spirit help us to find a renewed sense of compassion, that we may truly live as your people in service to all. Amen.

All pray in silence.

Sisters and Brothers in Christ, hear this good news and relax into the loving arms of our Faithful God: Even before we knew him, Christ forgave and redeemed us. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

People to Pastor: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

All: Glory to God! Amen.

Sharing the Peace of Christ

Turn to your neighbor and say: May the Peace of Christ be with You. You are God's beloved child.

Called to Thanksgiving

Taking the Bread and Cup

The Great Thanksgiving

Musical Setting: TFWS 2257 (a, b, c, d)

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor gives thanks appropriate to the occasion, remembering God's acts of salvation, and concludes:

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

*The pastor continues the thanksgiving. The institution of the Lord's Supper is recalled.
The pastor concludes:*

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ,
we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving
as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

The pastor invokes the present work of the Holy Spirit and then praises the Trinity, concluding:

...All honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and forever.

Amen, amen, amen. Hosanna in the highest.

The Lord's Prayer

UMH 895

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
