A Word from the Pastor

Dear Church,

Last week, I was blessed to spend time on retreat with my Doctor of Ministry cohort. I am currently in my second year of coursework through the University of Dubuque Theological Seminary for this program. Our class meets for an intensive class time each May. This coming May is our last year of class work, with independent dissertation time to follow. The professors of this cohort have prioritized retreat time. I have a hard time slowing down to practice retreat. I like to accomplish tasks and keep trucking along toward my goals. In the flurry of our recent transition, I realized that I have not taken much time to recalibrate my own spirit. This retreat, something that I often resist, became a helpful and holy time.

Our resident Spiritual Director, Rev. Karen Nelson, invited us to read Ruth Haley Barton's book, Invitation to Retreat: The Gift and Necessity of Time Away with God. This book asks so many good questions. I want to share some questions to ponder with you from the section about discernment. These come from page 89 of Barton's book:

- What in my present life situation is leading me toward God and others in love? What is leading me away?
- What is the underlying spirit in my dealings with others and their dealings with me? Is there any spirit that feels uncomfortable and warrants further attention?
- What is going on in my life these days, spiritually speaking? Where does there seem to be the greatest surrender to love, peace that passes understanding (even in the midst of difficulty), freedom for my authentic self, and life-giving energy and vitality? What seem to be obstacles to surrender, peace that passes understanding and so on?
- What guidance emerges from this awareness—particularly as I seek to align myself more fully with God's purposes? When and where have I sensed God's clear leading?

There is no wrong response/answer to these questions. They are helping me to do the zoom-out work of discipleship and discernment, so that I might get out of my own head, away from my own will/preference, and listen truly to where God is moving and calling me to follow. I hope these questions and musings might help you, too. I'm grateful to be on the journey with you.

Peace,

Pastor Stephanie

Saints in Service

The St. Luke's Saints, a youth group for students in elementary school, have been busy in October. They have done several service projects to help their church this month.

On October 2 they helped set up for the UMW Rummage Sale. They moved all the donated items (and there was a LOT of stuff!) that had been placed in the Wesley Room into Fellowship Hall so the ladies could sort things onto tables the next day.

October 9 they made "Prayer Pockets" to be used in the church's dining area. We had just finished a unit on the importance of prayer. We shared what prayers each of our families use at home, and then made copies of those prayers for the pockets. They are on the round tables for people to use before meals while at church.

On October 23 they helped Mary Purdy fill bags with non-perishable food that can be given to hungry people.

This energetic, enthusiastic group meets on Wednesday nights from 5:45-6:30 in the Wesley Room. Leaders are Kelley Schrupf and Laurinda Brimeyer. Any kids aged 6-11 are invited to join us as we explore using our Bibles, do crafts and service projects, and play games.

In Memory of Kathy Lamb

After being asked if he wanted to light a candle at our All Saints worship service on November 3rd, Steven Lamb sent us a grateful response:

Pastor and friends of St. Luke's,

I received your letter of invitation to celebrate All Saints Day with you on November 3 to celebrate and honor Kathy. I appreciate being included and it is very tempting to be there. I will be here, at Prairie View UMC, celebrating and honoring her on the same day, at the same time.

I will feel the love and support from our St. Luke's family while I am lighting her candle, here. Kathy loved her time at St. Luke's -- the place that allowed her to continue her passion of ministry in so many ways. Kathy was someone that wanted and needed everyone she knew to be family.

I have received many cards, notes, calls, texts, and letters over these past ten months from our friends and family, there, checking in to make sure I am doing okay and inviting me back for different activities and keeping me updated on milestones and life events. Each one of you is appreciated very much.

Please know that I pray for the people and the ministries of St. Luke's every day and every day and every day.

God bless.
 Pastor Steve Lamb
